Introtema

Frankfurt Buchmesse 2025

Highlights

NONFICTION

Get in touch

İntrotema Copyright and Translation Agency

Tozkoparan, General Ali Rıza Gürcan Cd. Metropol Center No: 31 Kat:11
İç Kapı No: 44, 34173 Güngören/İstanbul

Tel: +90 212 467 68 10 info@introtema.com

Sales Director

Emre Can Petek:
emrecan.petek@introtema.com

Arabic Speaking Countries

Aynur Sevimli:
aynur.sevimli@introtema.com

Russian Speaking & Turkic Countries

Gülnara Yakupova:
gulnara.yakupova@introtema.com
Khayala Murad:
khayala.murad@introtema.com

China, Nordic Regions, Latin America & Spanish Speaking Countries

Saliha Okul:
saliha.okul@introtema.com

China

Johnsen Zhang:
johnsen.zhang@introtema.com

German Speaking Countries

Büşra Abosamra:
busra.abosamra@introtema.com

Iran

Nasim Yousefi:
nasim.yousefi@introtema.com

Africa (French)

Assia Moussei:
assia.moussei@introtema.com

Türkiye

Mirhan Petek:
mirhan.petek@introtema.com

World

Hediye Boz:
hediye.boz@introtema.com

Introtema

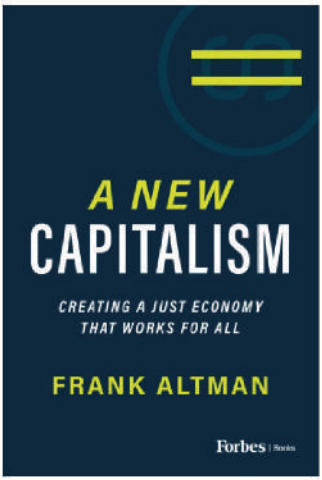
Frankfurt Buchmesse 2025

Highlights

SOCIAL SCIENCES

SOCIAL SCIENCES

A New Capitalism



Frank Altman

9781955884846

283 pp.

2023

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Vietnamese

A transformative guide to inclusive capitalism, addressing systemic inequities in wealth distribution. This work explores innovative investment strategies, like New Markets Tax Credits, to empower marginalized communities, leveraging post-COVID and social justice shifts for equitable growth.

Critical Racial and Decolonial Literacies

Debbie Bargallie, Nilmini Fernando

9781529234398

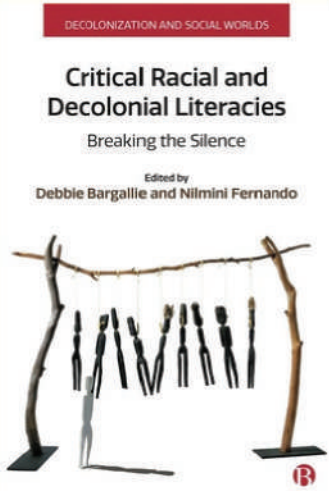
352 pp.

2024

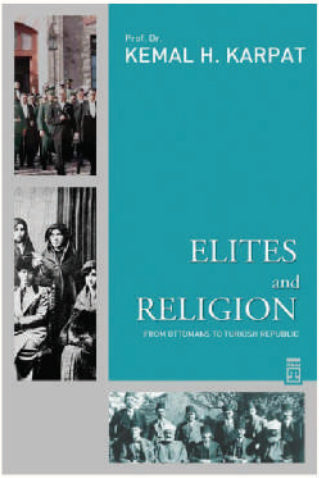
Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian, Russian

Rights available

This collection examines critical racial literacy and anti-racist practice in Australia's education system. Drawing on Indigenous and critical race perspectives, it offers practical strategies for educators and activists to address racism through decolonial, multidisciplinary approaches in classrooms and society.



Elites and Religion



Kemal Karpat

9786051141220

288 pp.

2012

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A historical exploration of the Ottoman Empire's social structure, focusing on its unique secularism and millet system, which granted autonomy to diverse communities. This work examines modernization, the evolving Ulema, and Turkey's multi-party democracy roots.

Metaphysics at the Focus of Philosophy and Science

Teoman Duralı

9786052021880

213 pp.

2019

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A philosophical study delving into the origins, structure, and nature of knowledge within metaphysics. This work examines knowledge acquisition through a historical and comparative lens, distinguishing philosophy's curiosity-driven inquiry from science's discovery of existence.

The Anatomy of the Age of Problems

Teoman Duralı

9786054056125

181 pp.

2009

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A philosophical exploration of the modern age's spiritual and existential crisis, likened to a diseased body lacking vitality. This work dissects contemporary society's decay through profound reflections, offering a bold critique of its condition.

Modern Slavery in Global Context

Elizabeth Faulkner

9781529224719

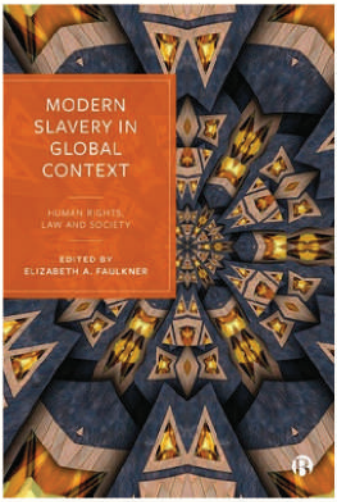
362 pp.

2025

Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian, Russian

Rights available

This interdisciplinary collection explores modern slavery, examining legal, political, and ideological responses to exploitation. Using global examples, it critiques dominant anti-trafficking discourses and offers unique insights into contemporary understandings and challenges in the study of modern slavery.



What Is Being?

Ömer Türker

9786057949455

184 pp.

2019

Represented worldwide

Rights available

This book examines the core framework of Islamic philosophical tradition, exploring conceptions of existence and how these ideas influenced theological (kalam) and mystical (sufism) thought across the tradition.

Artificial Intelligence: Interdisciplinary Approaches

Berrin Küçükcan, Banu Fulya Yıldırım

9786256385191

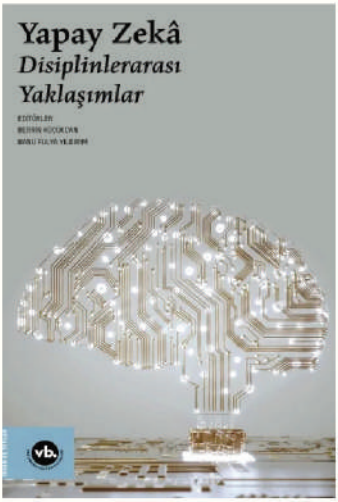
312 pp.

2023

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A comprehensive exploration of artificial intelligence's rise, integration into daily life, and its role in Industry 4.0. This work examines AI's development, applications, and potential future impacts, accessible to both general readers and professionals.



Oriantalism

Ziyauddin Sardar

9780335202065

144 pp.

1999

Represented in Turkic Republics, Russian, Balkans

Rights sold to Turkish

This book traces the evolution of Orientalism, examining its historical development and contemporary transformations. It contextualizes Edward Said's work, considers critiques, and explores how representations of the "Other" have adapted across media, history, and cultural practices.

The Power of Appreciation

Eva Wlodarek

9783423349819

208 pp.

2020

Represented in Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian

Rights available

This guide explores the importance of recognition and appreciation in personal and professional life. Emphasizing self-compassion and self-worth, it offers practical strategies to foster respect, convey value to others, and cultivate positive attention through confidence and social competence.

Introtema

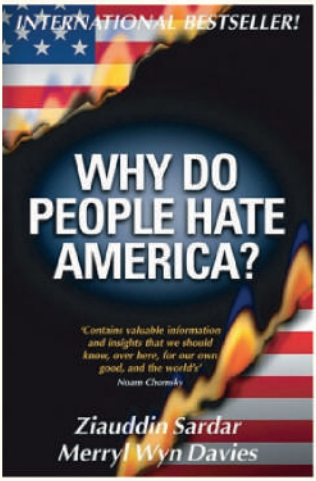
Frankfurt Buchmesse 2025

Highlights Fiction

POLITICS

CITI-ZEN

Why Do People Hate America



Ziyauddin Sardar

9781840465259

232 pp.

2002

Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Russian, Balkans

Rights available

This book examines the global influence of American corporations, culture, and foreign policy, exploring how U.S. values shape perceptions of civilization and humanity. It analyzes widespread anti-American sentiment and its roots, offering a critical perspective on America's self-image and global impact.

Woke Capitalism

Carl Rhodes

9781529211672

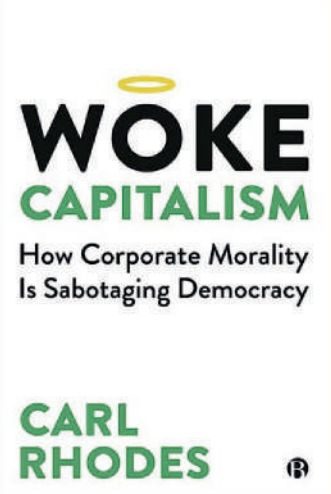
240 pp.

2022

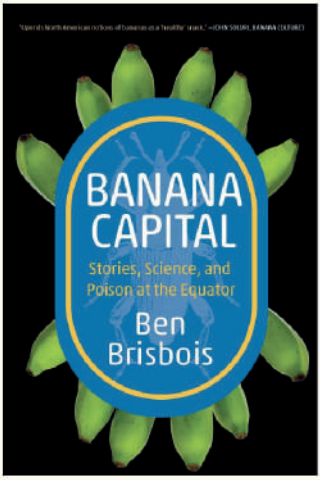
Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian, Russian

Rights available

This book traces the rise of "woke capitalism," examining how corporations engage with social and political causes. Analyzing its history from corporate social responsibility to modern debates, it explores the implications of this phenomenon for capitalism, democracy, and public morality.



Banana Capital



Ben Brisbois

9781779400345

352 pp.

2025

Represented in Turkic Republics, Indonesia, Russia

Rights available

This book examines the banana industry in Latin America, focusing on Machala, Ecuador, where workers face hazardous conditions and pesticide exposure. Blending history, science, and personal stories, it explores the ecological, social, and economic impacts of industrial banana production.

A History of Political Thought in the West

Mete Tunçay

9786256774469

432 pp.

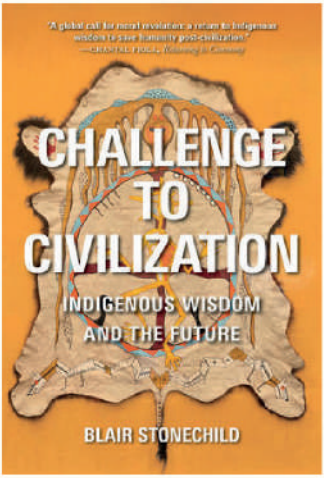
2024

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A scholarly anthology tracing Western political thought from the Founding Seers to the Defender of the Peace. This revised edition, used widely in universities, presents curated texts and updated sources, exploring ancient and medieval thinkers' enduring ideas.

Challenge to Civilization



Blair Stonechild

9780889779815

184 pp.

2024

Represented in Turkic Republics, Indonesia, Russia

Rights available

This book explores how Indigenous spirituality and wisdom offer vital guidance for humanity's survival. Challenging Western civilization's exploitative logic, it advocates "ecolization"—living harmoniously with nature and spirit—as a response to climate change and ecological crisis.

Changemakers

Jane Holgate, John Page

9781447328810

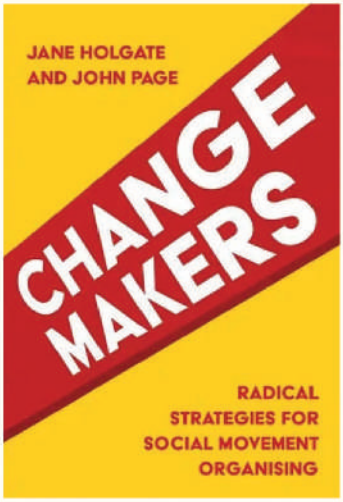
288 pp.

2025

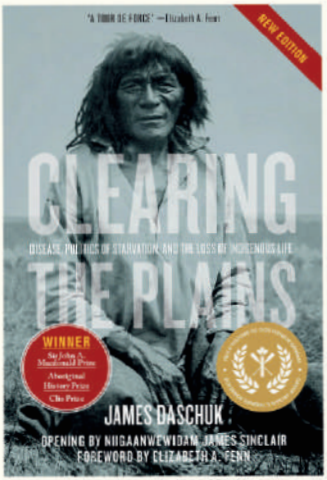
Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian, Russian

Rights available

This guide offers practical insights for activists, drawing on experiences in trade unions, environmentalism, and social justice. It explores leadership, negotiation, and organizing strategies, bridging theory and practice to empower changemakers to build effective, transformative movements.



Clearing the Plains



James Daschuk

9780889776227

386 pp.

2019

Represented in Turkic Republics, Indonesia, Russia

Rights available

This acclaimed book examines how Canada's first Prime Minister, Sir John A. Macdonald, implemented policies that led to the starvation and subjugation of Indigenous peoples. Combining history, politics, and social analysis, it explores the lasting impacts of ethnocide and systemic injustice in Canada.

The Epic of Human Civilization

Roger Garaudy

9786050828498

224 pp.

2019

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A global history of civilizations rejecting Western hegemony, this work explores humanity's missed opportunities and lost dimensions. Forward-looking, it inspires cultural openness and universal collaboration, challenging biases for a broader perspective.

In the Grip of Capitalism

Arif Özaydın

9786257587525

208 pp.

2022

Represented worldwide

Rights available

An exploration of capitalism's impact on health, economy, and humanity, revealing how its secular, profit-driven mindset creates crisis and alienation. Offering a critical perspective, it calls for a more humane, balanced world where well-being takes precedence.

War, Technology and the State

Warren Chin

9781529213416

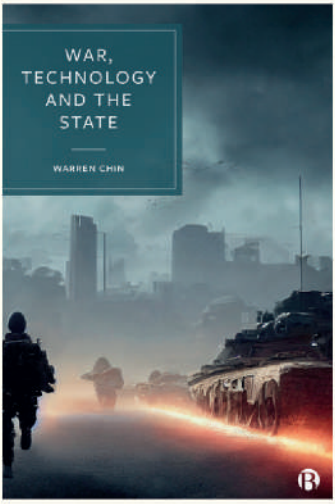
188 pp.

2025

Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian, Russian

Rights available

This book examines the evolving relationship between the state and warfare amid technological change. Focusing on drones and remote warfare, it explores how military innovations affect society and the economy, questioning the future of war and the potential transformation of the state.



Introtema

Frankfurt Buchmesse 2025

Highlights

PARENTING / SELF-HELP / HEALTH

A Life Guide for Life Beginners

Beyhan Budak

9786256228467

224 pp.

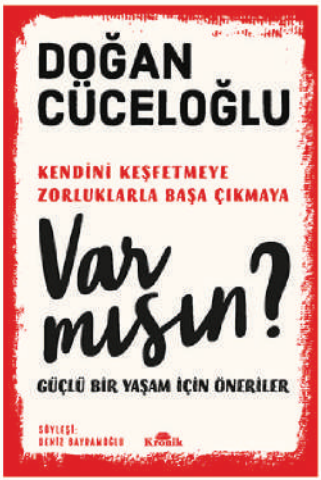
2025

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Uzbek

This reflective guide offers insights for sensitive and emotional readers navigating life's challenges. Written in a conversational style, it explores recurring mistakes, personal boundaries, and self-growth, encouraging readers to develop psychological resilience and mastery over their own lives.

Are You In?



Doğan Cüceloğlu

9786057635839

320 pp.

2021

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Azerbaijani, Arabic, Uzbek, Albanian, Kyrgyz

This reflective book presents Doğan Cüceloğlu's insights on life, personal growth, and resilience. Through candid conversations, it explores meaning, self-discovery, overcoming despair, and human connection, offering guidance for living a mindful, purposeful, and fulfilling life.

I'll Get Older Later

Marianne Koch

9783423284080

144 pp.

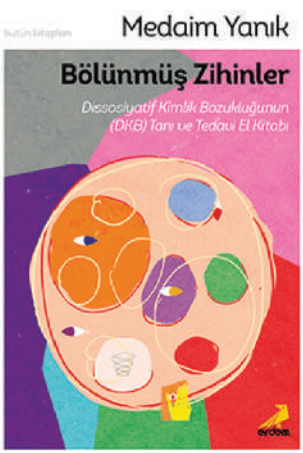
2024

Represented in Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malay

Rights available

This book explores "successful aging," offering guidance on maintaining mental, physical, and emotional vitality. Dr. Marianne Koch combines personal stories with practical advice on self-confidence, nutrition, exercise, lifelong learning, and coping with loneliness and loss.

Split Minds



Medaim Yanık

9786052796290

336 pp.

2023

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A practical guide designed like a "remote control" for family life, with wrong behaviors on the left and correct examples on the right. Easy to consult in tricky moments or share with others, it helps navigate daily challenges effectively.

A Day in the Life of a Therapist with

Medaim Yanık

9786052794814

104 pp.

2023

Represented worldwide

Rights available

Written by a therapist with nearly 30 years of experience, this book explores dissociative identity disorder and the mind's coping mechanisms through alter personalities. Using illustrative cases while preserving privacy, it offers insights into human psychology that resonate with all readers.

The Penguin Story

Dr. med. Eckart von Hirschhausen

9783423284523

128 pp.

2025

Represented in Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malay

Rights available

Using the story of penguins as a metaphor, this book explores the idea of finding one's element—where natural strengths can flourish. It encourages focusing on abilities rather than weaknesses to achieve personal fulfillment, growth, and peak performance.

Healthy Dad Sick Dad

Dr. Glen N. Robison

9781544520742

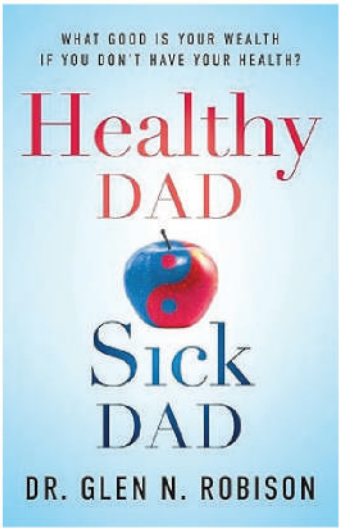
258 pp.

2021

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Russian, Slovak, Korean, English (India)

This book shares Dr. Glen N. Robison's personal journey and research on healthy aging. Using the contrasting retirements of two fathers, it provides practical guidance on lifestyle choices that promote long-term health, vitality, and an active, fulfilling retirement.



Wild Child

Eliane Retz, Christiane Stella Bongertz

9783492062497

384 pp.

2021

Represented Arabic, Indonesian, Malay, Mongolian, Filipino, Thai

Rights available

This guide helps parents navigate conflicts with toddlers using a gentle, attachment-focused approach. Through practical everyday examples, it shows how to manage tantrums, set boundaries, and foster both autonomy and a strong parent-child bond.

Wild Family

Eliane Retz, Christiane Stella Bongertz

9783492603386

384 pp.

2023

Represented Arabic, Indonesian, Malay, Mongolian, Filipino, Thai

Rights available

This practical guide addresses common family conflicts, from sibling rivalry to difficult emotions and aggressive behavior. Using real-life examples, it offers evidence-based parenting strategies that foster strong bonds, highlight learning opportunities in conflicts, and support a happy family life.

Wild Feelings

Eliane Retz, Christiane Stella Bongertz

9783492065573

224 pp.

2025

Represented Arabic, Indonesian, Malay, Mongolian, Filipino, Thai

Rights available

This book guides parents in managing children's anger and emotional outbursts with empathy and respect. It offers practical strategies to support emotional expression, break negative patterns from the past, and foster strong, healthy parent-child bonds without guilt or pressure.

The Art of the Good Life

Rolf Dobelli

9783492314459

384 pp.

2019

Represented Arabic, Indonesian, Malay, Mongolian, Filipino, Thai

Rights available

A psychological exploration of love's imperfections, revealing misconceptions and harmful behaviors in relationships. This accessible e-book by Müthiş Psikoloji offers insights to foster healthier connections, empowering readers to set boundaries and embrace authentic love.

The Art of Clear Thinking

Rolf Dobelli

9783492321556

272 pp.

2025

Represented Arabic, Indonesian, Malay, Mongolian, Filipino, Thai

Rights available

A philosophical journey through 40 existential questions, exploring self and world without offering fixed solutions. Drawing on Heidegger and Sartre, this work invites readers to embrace curiosity and self-awareness for a vibrant, liberating sense of being.

The Art of Clear Action

Rolf Dobelli

9783492321105

256 pp.

2024

Represented Arabic, Indonesian, Malay, Mongolian, Filipino, Thai

Rights available

This book gathers stories of mistakes and failures in life, careers, and relationships, forming a compendium of what not to do. By avoiding these destructive patterns, readers can uncover clearer paths to success and happiness.

The Remote Control of Your Family

Dr. Saniye Bencik Kangal

9786257112789

112 pp.

2023

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A psychotherapy narrative following three patients in intensive treatment, this book explores struggles with pain, addiction, depression, and fear of intimacy. Through intertwined stories, it reveals how unspoken truths shape healing and open paths to transformation.

What's Happening in My Child's Brain?

Dr. Saniye Bencik Kangal

9786257112321

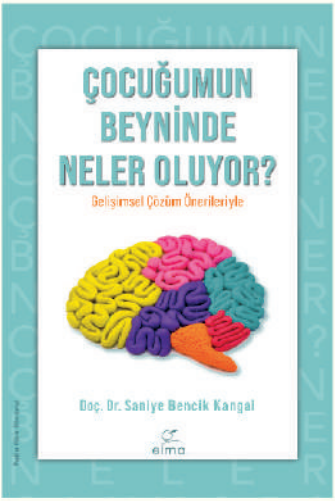
336 pp.

2021

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A sharp analysis of cognitive biases that sabotage our finances, careers, and happiness, rooted in our hunter-gatherer brains navigating a modern world. This work dissects common thinking traps, revealing why we overestimate our knowledge and cling to flawed beliefs, blending insight with engaging prose.



Boundaries but No Anger

Dr. Saniye Bencik Kangal

9786255941053

200 pp.

2025

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Persian

This book offers practical guidance for parents and educators on setting boundaries without anger. Drawing on real-life examples, it explains child development, the importance of limits, and step-by-step strategies for calm, understanding, and effective discipline.

If We Don't Yell, Then What?

Hatice Kübra Tongar

9786259607078

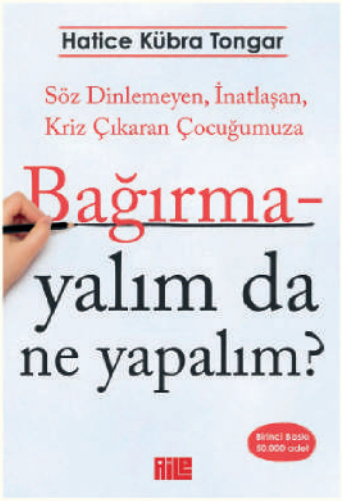
208 pp.

2025

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Uzbek

A guide for parents and educators on setting healthy, developmentally appropriate boundaries without harshness, showing how to raise confident, respectful, and well-adjusted children through calm and understanding discipline.



Mothers Who Don't Yell

Hatice Kübra Tongar

9789752477117

176 pp.

2017

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Uzbek, Kazakh, Macedonian, Arabic, Azerbaijani, Russian, Kyrgyz

A blend of personal journey and practical parenting guide, this book explores early childhood development, family dynamics, and crisis solutions, offering insights on topics from brain growth and confidence to play, communication, and handling sensitive issues with children.

Raising Siblings Who Get Along

Hatice Kübra Tongar

9786052214176

176 pp.

2018

Represented worldwide

Rights available

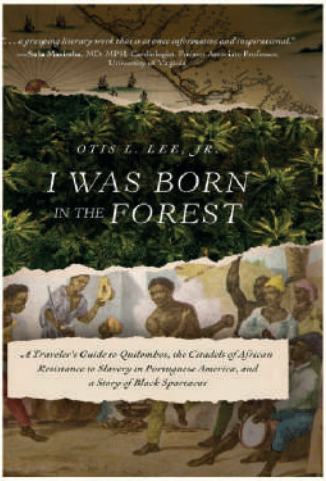
This book offers parents practical guidance for managing sibling jealousy and fostering harmonious relationships. Drawing on personal experience and pedagogical methods, it explains underlying causes, effective strategies, and techniques to minimize conflicts and nurture positive sibling bonds.

Introtema

Frankfurt Buchmesse 2025 Highlights

HISTORY

I Was Born in the Forest



Otis L. Lee Jr.

9798888242391

298 pp.

2024

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Arabic

A historical travelogue chronicling escaped Africans' establishment of Palmares, a resilient Black republic in 17th-century Brazil. This work explores themes of resistance, perseverance, and the quest for freedom amid colonial oppression.

CULTURE MEMORY

Cold and Bitter Days of Peace: Post-War Speeches 1996–2003

Aliya İzzetbegoviç

9786258094534

288 pp.

2022

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A powerful collection of speeches from 1996–2003, this book captures the voice of a leader who defended Bosnia on the global stage, reflected critically on his own party, and bore witness to resilience rising from unimaginable devastation.

Rye-a Prolific History

Annika Luther

9789515256003

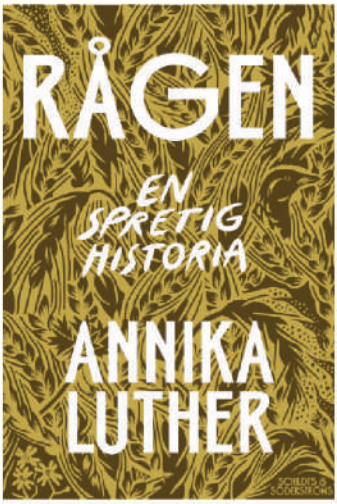
270 pp.

2024

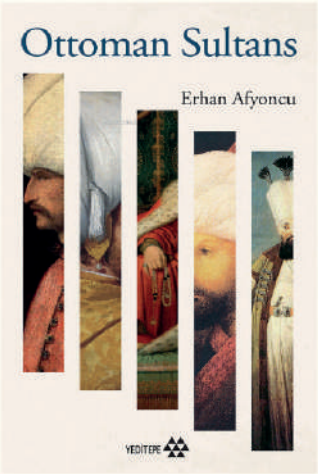
Represented in Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesia, Malaysia

Rights available

A historical journey tracing rye's evolution from a Middle Eastern weed to a northern dietary staple. This work explores its cultural significance, from political symbolism to modern sourdough trends, and its preservation in global seed vaults.



Ottoman Sultans



Erhan Afyoncu

9786258396782

224 pp.

2022

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Arabic

A historical survey of the Ottoman Empire's 36 sultans over 600 years across three continents. This work chronicles their lives, personalities, families, and key events, offering a nuanced perspective beyond.

The Ottoman Empire: A History

Gökhan Çetinsaya

9786050846430

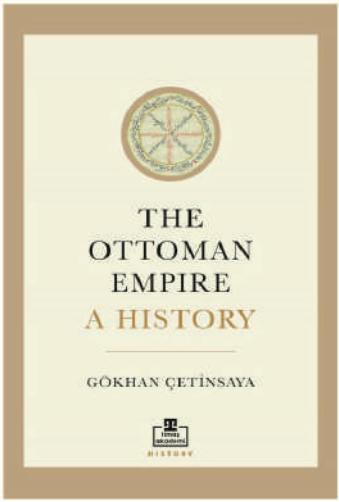
400 pp.

2022

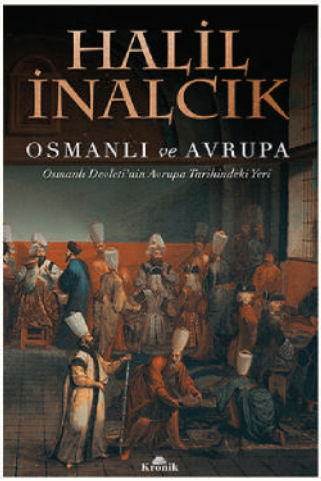
Represented worldwide

Rights available

A comprehensive textbook on the Ottoman Empire, detailing major political and military events, alongside its economic, legal, and institutional frameworks. Chronologies, key concepts, and further readings enhance understanding of its global historical significance.



The Ottoman Empire and Europe



Halil Inalcık

9786058301184

272 pp.

2017

Represented in worldwide

Rights sold to Chinese

A comparative history exploring the Ottoman Empire's pivotal role in shaping modern Europe since the 16th century. This work examines socio-cultural exchanges, challenging Western historiography's adversarial view with insights into shared political and cultural evolution.

A Short History of the Ottoman Empire

Halil İnalcık

9786258431667

256 pp.

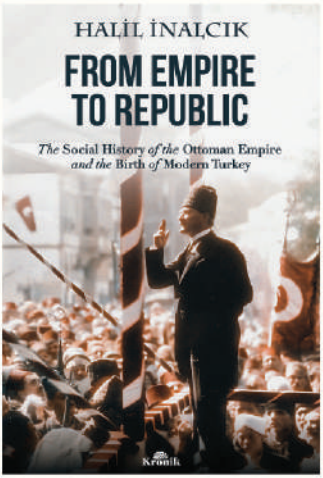
2022

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Chinese

A concise history of the Ottoman Empire, exploring its political, military, and economic evolution from its rise to the Republic of Turkey. This work offers clear insights into key reigns and Timur's empire, blending accessibility with depth.

From Empire to Republic



Halil İnalcık

9786256228146

240 pp.

2024

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A scholarly exploration of Ottoman social history and Turkey's transition to a republic, examining land tenure, non-Muslim communities, and Atatürk's reforms. This work illuminates the forces shaping modern Turkey through rigorous archival research.

The Ottoman Empire

Halil İnalcık

9789752430563

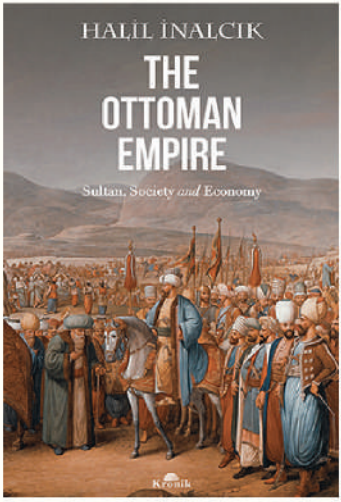
864 pp.

2021

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Serbian, Chinese

This two-volume set presents critical research on Ottoman society, economy, sultans, and politics. Readers will explore military, fiscal, and social structures, economic conditions, urban development, legal systems, and international trade, offering unparalleled insight into Ottoman history from its rise to the 15th century.



Fatih Sultan Mehmed

İlber Ortaylı

9786256228665

448 pp.

2025

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to German

A historical biography tracing Fatih Sultan Mehmed's transformation of the Ottoman Empire through military conquests, including Istanbul's fall, and his intellectual pursuits, shaping a Renaissance-era ruler's legacy across Europe and the East.

Ottoman Studies

İlber Ortaylı

9786057635082

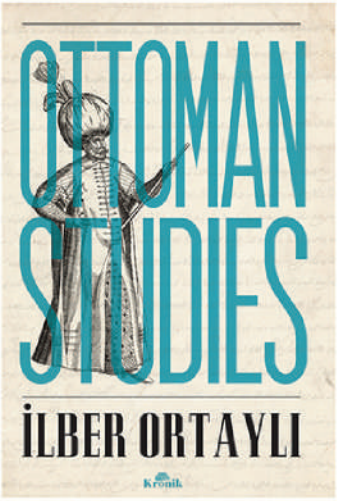
256 pp.

2019

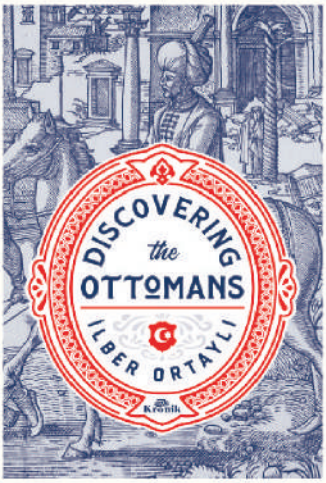
Represented worldwide

Rights available

A scholarly collection exploring the Ottoman Empire's final centuries, detailing political, economic, social, and cultural transformations. It examines the millet system, modernization efforts, minority communities, provincial structures, and Ottoman-Russian relations through extensive archival research.



Discovering The Ottomans



İlber Ortaylı

9786258431841

192 pp.

2022

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Chinese

A historical exploration of the Ottoman Empire, this book examines politics, daily life, architecture, and culture. From Istanbul's significance to Sinan's genius and palace traditions, it provides clear insights into a civilization that shaped world history.

The Ottoman Empire and the World

Kemal Karpat

9786050819762

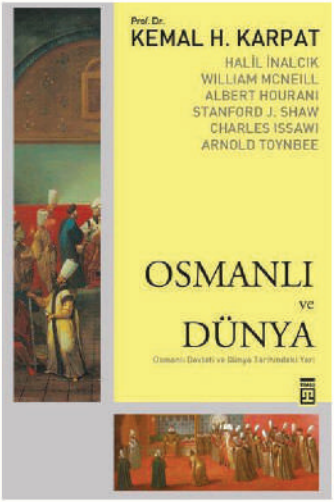
208 pp.

2020

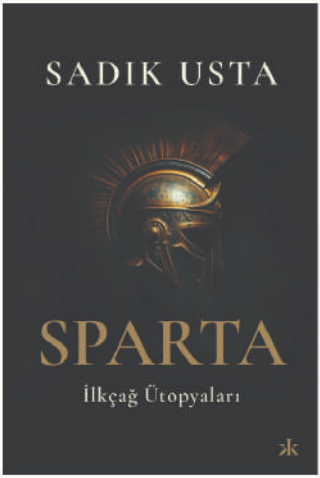
Represented worldwide

Rights available

A historical analysis highlighting the Ottoman Empire's pivotal role in shaping world history and modern Europe. This work examines its administrative systems, global influence, and enduring legacy across Europe and the Middle East.



Sparta



Sadık Usta

9786257994101

228 pp.

2024

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Arabic

A historical exploration of Sparta's enduring influence on ancient politics, philosophy, and culture. This work examines its societal structure, the enigmatic figure of Lycurgus, and debates over his laws, blending history, myth, and utopian ideals.

Thutmose III and Hatshepsut, Pharaohs of Egypt

Aidan Dodson

9781649031594

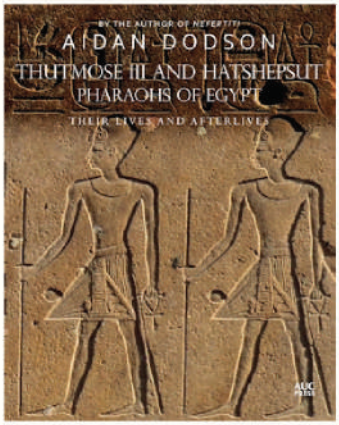
272 pp.

2025

Represented in Turkic Republics, Indonesia, Russia and Balkans

Rights available

This illustrated book examines the lives and reigns of Thutmose III and Hatshepsut, exploring their military, political, and architectural achievements. It also traces their posthumous reputations and modern rediscovery, offering a comprehensive view of two of Egypt's most iconic pharaohs.



Introtema

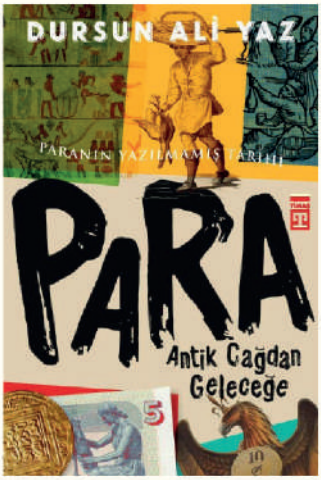
Frankfurt Buchmesse 2026

Highlights

BUSINESS

01 NUMBERS 02 03

Money from Antiquity to the Future



Dursun Ali Yaz

9786050832044

352 pp.

2025

Represented worldwide

Rights sold to Uzbek

A historical journey tracing money's evolution from antiquity to the digital age, exploring its impact on power, myths, and societal structures. This work categorizes money's forms and examines its sociological and cultural significance.

Blockchain: Cryptocurrencies – Bitcoin

Erkin Şahingöz

9789752430600

320 pp.

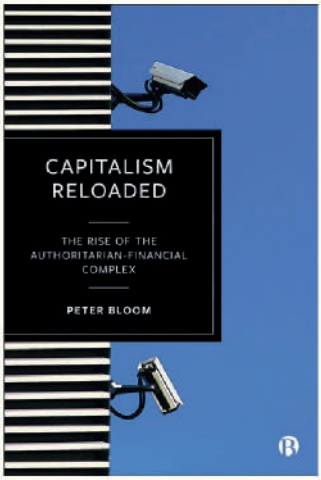
2018

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A comprehensive guide to cryptocurrencies and blockchain technology, exploring Bitcoin's origins, its transformative impact, and future implications. This work examines legal dimensions and predicts profound societal changes driven by decentralized systems.

Capitalism Reloaded



Peter Bloom

9781529233858

270 pp.

2025

Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian, Russian

Rights available

Charting the rise of the "Authoritarian-Financial Complex," this book examines how financial power, surveillance, and digital control reshape capitalism. It analyzes the growing fusion of security and profit, revealing its impact on societies, economies, and the erosion of democratic freedoms.

Basic Income

Matthew Johnson, Kate Pickett, Daniel Nettle, Howard Reed, Elliott Johnson, Ian Robson

9781447374008

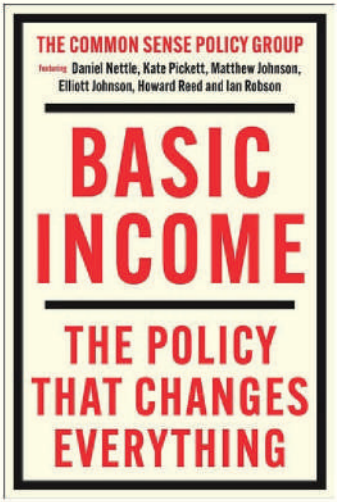
148 pp.

2025

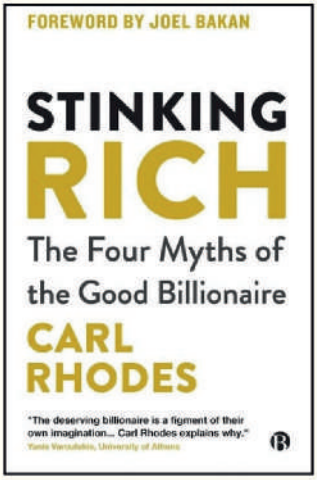
Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian, Russian

Rights available

Examining global trials of basic income, this book explores its impact on health, education, work, and community life. It demonstrates how financial security can break poverty cycles, empower individuals, and foster long-term societal and economic transformation.



Stinking Rich



Carl Rhodes

9781529239119

218 pp.

2026

Represented in Turkish, Arabic, Turkic Republics, Indonesian, Malaysian, Russian

Rights available

This book critically examines the myths surrounding billionaires—heroic, generous, meritorious, and vigilante—and their role in perpetuating extreme inequality. It explores how these narratives sustain wealth and power while advocating for economic justice and democratic accountability.

CORPORATEEQ

Arzu Girişken

9786254066528

140 pp.

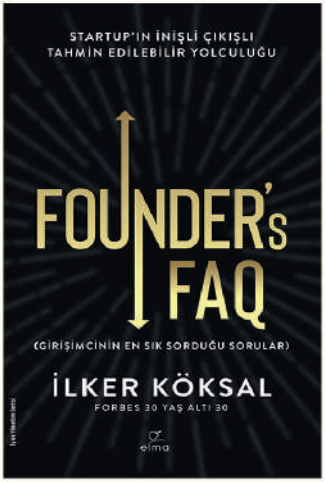
2021

Represented worldwide

Rights available

This book explores the role of emotional intelligence and relationship-oriented leadership in enhancing organizational performance. It examines how motivation, passion, and human capital development drive innovation, resilience, and productivity, offering practical insights for managers and students navigating competitive and uncertain business environments.

Founder's FAQ



İlker Köksal

9786257112314

264 pp.

2021

Represented worldwide

Rights available

Based on personal experience in Silicon Valley, this book guides aspiring entrepreneurs through the startup journey from launch to exit. Drawing on real challenges, lessons, and common questions, it serves as a practical handbook for navigating the path of entrepreneurship.

Not Favoritism, Networking

İdil Türkmenoğlu, Işıl Taysever

9786059367400

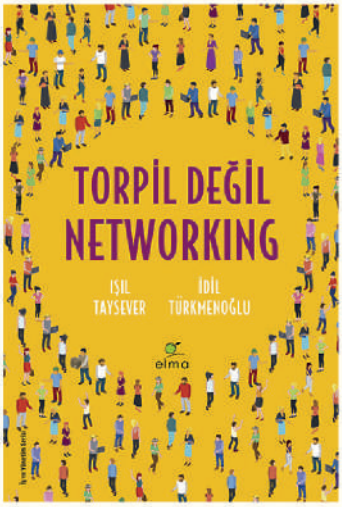
72 pp.

2019

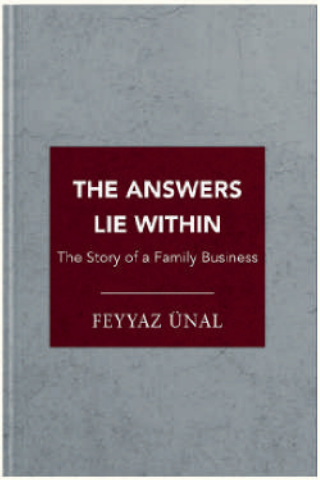
Represented worldwide

Rights available

This illustrated guide explores the power of networking, showing how everyone is connected and how relationships can impact careers. Offering practical tips and strategies, it helps readers expand their networks effectively while navigating key considerations for professional growth.



The Answers Lie Within - The Story of a Family Business



Feyyaz Ünal

9786257112871

160 pp.

2024

Represented worldwide

Rights available

This book shares the real-life journey of a young businessman navigating a family business after early professional experience. Through practical lessons and personal insights, it explores business transformation, leadership development, and cultivating a positive organizational culture.

Environmental Entrepreneurship

Faisal Abdulrhman Osra,
Mustafa Kemal Topcu

9786253764876

142 pp.

2025

Represented worldwide

Rights available

A comprehensive study of digital technologies, from AI to blockchain, transforming economic and social landscapes. This work examines structural changes, new inequalities, and policy implications, offering a strategic perspective on the digital age's complexities.

